

ATTACHMENT FOR NETHERLANDS ANTILLES

1. QI is subject to the following laws and regulations of the Netherlands Antilles governing the requirements of QI to obtain documentation confirming the identity of QI's account holders.

- (i) The National Ordinance Identification When Rendering Financial Services ("IFS");
- (ii) The National Ordinance Reporting of Unusual Transactions ("RUT") of October 1, 1997; and
- (iii) The Guidelines of the Bank of the Netherlands Antilles on the Detection and Deterrence of Money Laundering of 1996, which are based on Article 21, paragraph 2, section (e) of the National Ordinance Supervision of Banking and Credit Institutions of February 2, 1994.

2. QI represents that the laws and regulations identified in item 1 are enforced by the following enforcement bodies and QI shall provide the IRS with an English translation of any reports or other documentation issued by these enforcement bodies that are relevant to QI's functions as a qualified intermediary.

The Bank of the Netherlands Antilles ("BNA").

3. QI represents that the following penalties apply for failure to obtain, maintain, and evaluate documentation obtained under the laws and regulations identified in item 1.

- (i) Imprisonment of up to four years and/or a fine of up to five hundred thousand guilders or both.
- (ii) Revocation of license to do business.

4. QI shall use the following specific documentary evidence (and also any specific documentary evidence added by an amendment to this item 4 as agreed to by the IRS) to comply with section 5 of this Agreement, provided that the following documentary evidence satisfies the requirements of the laws and regulations identified in item 1 above. In the case of a foreign person, QI may, instead, use a Form W-8 in accordance with section 5 of this Agreement. Either QI, or a banking or securities association in the Netherlands Antilles, may request an amendment of this item 4.

(i) For natural persons, one of the following valid documents:

- (a) A driver's license;
- (b) An identity card issued by the respective island authorities of the Netherlands Antilles; or
- (c) A passport.

(ii) For legal entities, the following documentary evidence:

- (a) For partnerships, a copy of the partnership agreement;
- (b) For corporations, a copy of the certificate of incorporation or registry certification;
- (c) For trusts, a copy of the trust deed or certified extracts from the trust deed.

5. QI shall follow the procedures set forth below (and also any procedures added by an amendment to this item 5 as agreed to by the IRS) to confirm the identity of account holders that do not open accounts in person or who provide new documentation for existing accounts other than in person. In the case of a foreign person, QI may, instead, use a Form W-8 in accordance with section 5 of this Agreement. Either QI, or a banking or securities association in the Netherlands Antilles, may request an amendment to this item 5.

(i) QI shall not open an account by any means other than by establishing in person the identity of a customer through the account holder's own identity documents, except as permitted in (ii), (iii) and (iv) below.

(ii) QI may obtain by mail or otherwise a copy that is an exact reproduction of the specific documentary evidence listed in item 4 above from another person that is subject to know-your-customer rules that have been approved by the IRS for purposes of qualified intermediary agreements, provided that the laws and regulations listed in item 1 permit QI to rely on the other person to identify the account holder.

(iii) QI may obtain a photocopy of the specific documentary evidence listed in item 4 by mail or otherwise remotely from the account holder or a person acting on behalf of the account holder, provided that the photocopy has been certified as a true and correct copy by a person whose authority to make such certification appears on the photocopy, and provided that the laws and regulations listed in item 1 permit QI to rely on the certified photocopy to identify the account holder.

(iv) (a) QI may obtain by mail or otherwise a copy that is an exact reproduction of the specific documentary evidence listed in Item 4 from an affiliate of QI or a correspondent bank of QI, provided that the affiliate or correspondent bank has established in person the identity of the account holder and the laws and regulations listed in Item 1 permit QI to rely on documentation provided by that affiliate or correspondent bank to identify the account holder.

(b) For accounts opened prior to January 1, 2001, if QI was not required under its know-your-customer rules to maintain originals or copies of documentation, QI may rely on its account information if it has complied with all other aspects of its know-your-customer rules regarding
